

Name: _____

Nationalism & Imperialism Study Guide

Vocabulary

Napoleon III	Friedrich Nietzsche
Burschenschaften	imperialism
Otto von Bismarck	Social Darwinism
Second Industrial Revolution	Herbert Spencer
union	anti-Semitism
Eduard Bernstein	pogroms
Disraeli	Zionist Movement
Gladstone	Theodore Herzl
Marie Curie	Impressionism
Albert Einstein	Abstract Art
Sigmund Freud

Guided Questions

1. How did Napoleon III get his power? What changes did he bring to France?
2. How did Prussia give rise to Germany under Otto von Bismarck?
3. What was the result of the Franco-Prussian War for France?
4. How was the Second Industrial Revolution different from the first? What were the powerful countries this time?

5. What were conditions like for the working classes? How did the workers attempt to change these conditions?

6. How did Bernstein's socialism differ from Marx's?

7. In the ministries of Disrael and Gladstone, what changes came to Britain?

8. Why was there a new colonial period? What excuses did Europeans use for the new imperial period?

9. How did the way people viewed the universe change in the late 1800s/early 1900s?

10. What did Nietzsche mean by the "superman?" What would our society be like if we followed his advice?

11. In what ways did people how they viewed themselves in this period?

12. Where were the worst instances of anti-Semitism in the late 1800s?

13. How did most Jewish people respond to growing anti-Semitism?